

5.4 Powers of ACM: For the purpose of fulfilling the duties set out in Article 5.3, ACM is granted the following powers:

(a) the power to appoint the following persons and bodies:

- (i) the Event Authority (see Article 6);
- (ii) the Race Committee (see Article 7);
- (iii) the Measurement Committee (see Article 8);
- (iv) the umpires (see Article 9);
- (v) such other persons as are reasonably necessary in discharging the duties outlined in Article 5.3 and in meeting the purpose and intent set out in Article 2.1.

If the Challenger of Record objects to the appointment on grounds of neutrality of any person to a senior position on the Race Committee, the Measurement Committee, or as an umpire, it may within seven (7) days of the appointment, refer the appointment to the Sailing Jury who shall determine whether such person is capable of exercising neutral judgment to hold the position to which it is appointed.
